

Workshop on equity challenges in the decision-making process

Identifying equity indicators

COST Action No. TU1209

Action Title: Transport Equity Analysis: Assessment and Integration of Equity Criteria in Transport Planning (TEA)

Venue: Technion, Haifa, Israel, December 11- 12, 2013

Wednesday Dec 11 Afternoon:

Grand Water Research Institute building (GWRI) Auditorium

14:30-14:40 Welcome (Yoram Shiftan)

14:40-14:50 Outline for the first TEA Action Workshop (Floriea Di Ciommo, Chair)

14:50-15:20 Plenary presentation on "Results on the Equity Statements definition: new steps" by Sigal Kaplan and Karel Martens

15:20 -15:45 Coffee break

15:45-17:30 Breakout Session 1: Scientific papers by young and senior researchers in three parallel sessions

GWRI Meeting Room

Transport use and equity: Some methodological approaches

Moderator: Imre Keseru

1. Karel Martens, Floridea Di Ciommo, Anestis Papanikolaus "Incorporating equity into transport planning: utility, priority and sufficiency approaches"
2. Bat-hen Nahmias–Biran and Yoram Shiftan: "Incorporating equity considerations in transport projects evaluation: developing a new measure"
3. Pierluigi Coppola "The marginal access cost: a new indicator for sustainable urban development"
4. Bat-hen Nahmias–Biran, Karel Martens and Yoram Shiftan: "A justice-theoretic approach to the distribution of transportation benefits: Consequences for project assessment"
5. Floridea Di Ciommo, Daniel de la Hoz and Luis Angel Guzman: "Exploring users intertemporal preferences for measuring transport social equity effects"

6th Floor Meeting Room - Rabin Building

Private and public transport: debating some equity issues

Moderator: Joseph N. Prashker

6. Karen Lucas and Floridea Di Ciommo: "Evaluating the spatial and social equity effects of road pricing in the European urban context"
7. Jean-loup, Boucq Elise, Cornut Benoît and Hivert Laurent: Social diffusion of car ownership and use in the metropolitan area of Paris since the mid-70's
8. Claire Papaix and, Ariane Dupont-Kieffer : "Introducing equity in low-carbon urban transport policy-making: an application to the cities of Lille and Stockholm"
9. Sigal Kaplan, Joao Abreu e Silva and Floridea Di Ciommo: "Transit use by young people in times of financial austerity: a cause of equity concern?"

7th Floor Plenary Room - Rabin Building

Moving costs and accessibility: dealing with equity

Moderator: Andrés Monzón

10. Arsenio, E. ; Nahmias-Biran, B.; Shiftan, Y.: "Equity in Public Transport: an intractable policy problem or a set of methodological challenges?"
11. An Neven "Development of a Business plan for an Accessible Mobility System Flanders"
12. Eran Ben-Elia and Yodan Rofè "How to Measure Accessibility Inequality"
13. Itzhak Benenson, Dmitry Geyzersky, Karel Martens "Transport Accessibility from a Human Point of View"

GWRI Auditorium

17:30-17:45 Plenary session: Report of parallel sessions by the moderators (Breakout Session 1) and key points for launching the Workshop on Identifying equity indicators and stakeholders feedbacks chaired by Elisabete Arsenio

20:00 Dinner

Thursday Dec 12

GWRI Auditorium

8:30-9:00 Welcome coffee

9:00-9:15 Welcome (Yoram Shiftan)

9:15-9:30 TEA Action: expected results from the Equity indicators workshop by Floridea Di Ciommo (Chair TEA Action)

9:30-9:50 Plenary presentation on "How to define equity indicators: where we are? By Aruna Sivakumar and Karen Lucas

9:50-10:10 Former Deputy General Manager and Director of Public Transport, the Israel Ministry of Transport, Yehuda Elbaz: The Equality Duty and Equality Assessments in Public Transport Planning (20')

10:10-10:30 Rebecca Shliselberg: Transport and equity: a civil society perspective

10:30-10:50 Open discussion on stakeholders perspective: moderated by Yoram Shiftan

10:50-11:10 Coffee break

11:10-12:40 Breakout Session 2 : Policymakers, practitioners and researchers panel (60')
Panel Groups discussion on TEA Action case studies:

- PG1: GWRI Meeting Room: Equity and transport at national scale lead by Zeev Shadmi (Israel Ministry of Transport) and Karen Lucas, Conny Louen rapporteur
- PG2: 6th Floor Meeting Room - Rabin Building: Madrid, lead by Carlos Cristobal and Sigal Kaplan, Slaven Gasparovic rapporteur
- PG3 7th Floor Plenary Room - Rabin Building: Tel-Aviv, lead by Ruti Amir and Yoram Shiftan, Claire Papaix rapporteur
- PG4 7th Floor Council Room - Rabin Building: Utrecht, lead by Johanan van Dijk and Karel Martens, Maik Homke rapporteur

GWRI Auditorium

Plenary Session of short presentations by key policy makers for each panel case study group, facilitated by Floridea Di Ciommo, (30')

12:40-13:40 Lunch

GWRI Auditorium

13: 40-15:00: Plenary presentation on Quality measurement of equity in Health by Ariane Dupont (vice-Chair TEA Action) (15')

Equity cross-sectors comparison – Introduction of 3 speakers by Ariane Dupont (5')

- Nadav Davidovitch, Center for Health Policy in the Negev: Equity issues in health sector (20')
- Lea Rosenberg, former deputy general manager of the Israel Education Ministry: How to deal with equity in the educational sector (20')
- Utrecht Regional Authority: How local authorities deal with distributive issues (20')

15:00-15:15 Coffee Break

15:15-16:15 Breakout Session 3: Brainstorming on cross-sectors equity indicators: what we can learn from the other sectors what is strictly related with transport domain

Four Panel groups:

- PG1: GWRI Meeting Room, lead by Nir Sharabi and Elisabete Arsenio, Dimitrios Efthymiou, rapporteur
 - PG2: 6th Floor Meeting Room - Rabin Building, lead by Yehoshua Biroterk and Joao Abreu, Matteo Tabasso rapporteur
 - PG3: 7th Floor Council Room - Rabin Building lead by Nadav Davidovitch and Evangelios Mitsakis, Pierluigi Coppola rapporteur
 - PG 4: 7th Floor Meeting Room - Rabin Building lead by Dani Givon and Anestis Papanikolaou, Jeroen Bastiaanssen rapporteur
- Presentation and discussion of cross-sectors equity indicators (15')
 - Facilitated brainstorming exercise to identify equity indicators in each group (45')

GWRI Auditorium

16:15-16:30 Plenary Session Presentations of 4 groups transport equity indicators and feedback discussion facilitated by Karen Lucas (15')

16:30-17:00 Open discussion: moderators, Yoram Shifan and Evangelos Mitsakis (30')

17:00-17:15 Workshop closing by Floridea Di Ciommo and Ariane Dupont

17:15-17:30 Closing Drink